Brandon and Janet have to read for 20 minutes every evening. It is a rule, their parents have laid down. It is Friday night, and Brandon and Janet are being looked after by their grandparents. The rule still applies though, so the grandparents make sure the children read for 20 minutes. All of them are together in Brandon's room, and while the children read, the grandparents look at all of Brandon's stuff. He has a basketball, a globe, many books on a shelf and many vehicles to play with.
